TO: USE WHAT YOU HAVE, INC.

I UNDERSTAND AND AGREE TO THE FOLLOWING:

My payment of the Use What You Have Decorator Training Program fee constitutes my agreement to the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth, and I agree to be bound thereby:

The cost of the Use What You Have At Home Decorator Training Level 1 Program is $500 payable, in advance, by Visa or MasterCard. My fee must be paid in full prior to shipping of the materials. I understand that there are no refunds once my order is shipped. Any refunds issued for cancellations must be received in writing from me, and postmarked no later than 14 days prior to the start of IRN training. There will be no refunds after this date. My refund is subject to a 10% cancellation fee.

The training materials I will receive will include an instruction overview and guide to the training program, (4) DVDs, and a password to access the Online Training Center.

During Level 1, I will be required to take one (1) exam. If I successfully complete the program and receive a passing grade on the examination, I will be eligible to proceed to Level 2 Training.

All trade secrets, techniques, information and proprietary data that are disclosed to me will be kept strictly confidential and safeguarded. Therefore, I recognize that membership or participation in any other one-day design organization or network of competing referral or training methods represents a threat to the security of Use What You Have, Inc. trade secrets and the Interior Redecorators Network® and is a breach of this agreement. As such, I shall not have any professional association with any competing network, program or group after becoming a Certified Interior Redecorator™. This does not include training programs in Feng Shui, staging, floral design and other classes not related to one-day interior decorating or redesign.

I agree that Use What You Have, Inc. makes no claims or representations whatsoever regarding potential sales, profits or earnings achievable upon completion of the program.

I will also guarantee that adequate precautions are taken to preserve confidentiality in the storage, dispatch and disposal of material covered by this Agreement.

These materials shall include, but not be limited to, the DVDs, any and all drawings, designs, specifications, models, samples, devices, manuals, reports, plans, diagrams, prototypes, computer programs, documentation and other things in which copyright or trademark exists or may exist, together with any and all information, financial reports, marketing data or plans, calculations, concepts, know-how and any and all other things received during or as a consequence of any exchange of information or discussions and similar information of the Use What You Have® system, principles or methods that are valuable, special, unique and constitute proprietary assets of Use What You Have, Inc.(the Confidential Information).

The disclosure of commercial and technical material and information referred to herein relate to matters which are of special, unique and extraordinary character, which gives them a unique value and for the disclosure of which Use What You Have cannot be reasonably or adequately compensated in damages. Accordingly, I agree that any breach or attempted or threatened breach of this non-disclosure by me could cause you irreparable injury for which there would not be adequate remedy by law. Therefore, I expressly agree that on the breach, or attempted or threatened breach of this Agreement by me, you shall be entitled to injunctive or other equitable relief to secure the enforcement hereof, in addition to any other legal or equitable remedies that may be available to you.

I shall not disclose any portions of the Confidential Information to any third party, employee or non-employee, including subcontractors. I shall inform any and all of my potential employees that I am bound by a Confidentiality Agreement concerning the Confidential Information and that they are obliged to become certified by Use What You Have before I can discuss, share or reveal any part of the Confidential Information with them.

I may not copy or make any commercial or personal use of any part of the Confidential Information except to the extent permitted by Use What You Have, Inc. or Lauri Ward.

I agree to use and store the Confidential Information out of view from unauthorized viewing and accessible only to the extent necessary to carry out the purposes of this Agreement. I will not make any reports, publications or give interviews concerning Confidential Information without your prior written consent.

The validity of this Agreement and the interpretation and performance of all of its terms shall be governed by the substantive and procedural laws of the State of New York. In any legal proceeding arising out of this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to an award of its costs and reasonable attorney's fees.

Nothing contained herein is intended to, or shall be deemed to, constitute a partnership or joint venture between Use What You Have, Inc. or Lauri Ward.

Lauri Ward maintains her right to the sole ownership of the following registered and/or active trademarks:
